Renaissance Rebrands Company RenPSG, Unveils New Logo

RenPSG also moves into larger office space

Indianapolis, Ind. - RenPSG, the nation's largest independent philanthropic solutions provider, today announced a new name in conjunction with its move to a larger location.

Established in 1987 as Renaissance Inc., the company focused solely on charitable trusts until 2000 when it began exploring additional service areas. By taking the knowledge and technology developed to become the largest independent charitable trust administrator in the country, RenPSG began creating transformative solutions for other gift types. Today, RenPSG is a one-stop shop for the philanthropic needs of faith-based organizations, nonprofit organizations and financial services firms by providing the administrative and accounting work necessary for donor-advised funds, pooled income funds, private foundations and charitable gift annuities, in addition to charitable trusts.

"Renaissance Philanthropic Solutions Group more accurately reflects the knowledge, service and capabilities our team provides clients each and every day," said E. Edward Thompson, President and CEO of RenPSG. "Even though our name and location have changed, what remains the same is the incredibly talented team we have assembled and their commitment to assisting our clients reach their philanthropic goals."

As a custody and investment neutral provider, RenPSG has become a preferred partner for nonprofit organizations and financial institutions who want to retain investment control over their charitable assets.

Additionally, to accommodate its current growth projections, RenPSG has relocated its corporate headquarters to 8910 Purdue Road, Suite 500 in Indianapolis, Ind.
